Dear Parents/Carers

Transition to Newfield School 2023

I hope this letter finds you and your loved ones well and that you are excited about your child's transition to Newfield School in September 2023. Following our previous letter from our Headteacher, Mrs Anderson, I would like to update you on our latest transition plans and outline the next parts of our transition communication.

Upcoming Transition Information

- Newfield School Information Booklet - this is included on the transition page on the school website and is a superb opportunity to learn all the key details about our wonderful school and how we support our students in ensuring their achievement leads to opportunity and choice.
- Further communication with letters from
  - Deputy Headteacher, Mr Dawson, on 'A Love of Learning at Newfield School'
  - Co-Heads of Lower School, Mr Wildes and Mr Marriott, on 'Transition So Far and Transition to Come'
  - Head of Year 7, Mr Beaumont, on 'Our New Year 7 Community' with a personalised message from your child's new form tutor(s)
  - Headteacher, Mrs Anderson, on 'Newfield School – An Exceptional School'

- A frequently asked questions video and other school informational videos will be posted on the school's transition page on the school website – please see details below.

Answering your Questions

We would like to produce a video which will include answers to any questions you may have about Newfield School and your child's transition. Please email any questions to Mr Wildes or Mr Marriott by Monday 26 June 2023. The video will then be posted week commencing 3 July 2023.

Music Tuition

Instrumental music tuition is available at Newfield through accredited music teachers and the Sheffield Music Hub. A letter regarding music tuition is enclosed.

The great William Shakespeare once said, 'Be not afraid of greatness; some are born great, some achieve greatness, and others have greatness thrust upon them'. It has been a pleasure to write to you and we cannot wait to welcome your child to our school. We look forward to our new students' great moments and achievements during their journey at Newfield School.

Yours faithfully

Mr Jenkinson
Deputy Headteacher
